Managing Director, Policy December 2017 – December 2021
Policy Director April 2017 – November 2017

- Lead the execution of the organization’s strategic plan, focusing on thought leadership and advocacy for public policy that drives innovations to reduce global energy emissions.
- Synchronize the organization’s core functions to drive results – aligning public policy development, philanthropic activities, advocacy and government affairs, organizational coalition-building, strategic communications, and political initiatives, among other aspects.
- Frequent commentator on energy innovation, technology financing, and regulatory reforms in the media, at industry convenings, and in Congress, including testifying before U.S. House and Senate Committees.

ClearPath Action Washington, D.C.
Chief Executive Officer April 2024 – Present

- Direct advocacy strategy across Congress, the White House, and Executive Agencies to advance bipartisan legislative outcomes on innovation policy across the power, heavy industry, and agriculture sectors.
- Serve as a trusted convener and coalition builder across industry, policymakers, and other stakeholders to further alignment on solutions that further energy security, economic growth, and emission reductions

U.S. Senate, Office of Nevada Senator Dean Heller (R-NV) Washington, D.C.
Senior Legislative Assistant/Nevada Policy Advisor January 2014 – April 2017

- Executed legislative strategies, engaged the Executive Branch, and served as a surrogate to local government and private sector entities on agriculture, energy, environmental, tax, technology, and trade policy issues.
- Vetted energy, environmental, transportation, and commerce-focused nominations to the Executive Branch.
- Advanced policies that expand public infrastructure, foster technological innovation, and promote travel security through the Committees on Finance and on Commerce, Science and Transportation and into law.

U.S. House of Representatives, Office of Paul Gosar D.D.S. (R-AZ) Washington, D.C.
Legislative Director January 2011 – December 2013

- Spearheaded Congressman Gosar’s legislative efforts at the House Natural Resources Committee, including significant policy enacted into law focused on energy, critical mineral development, and land conservation.
- Coalesced 40-plus Western Caucus policymakers, as part of caucus leadership, behind a coordinated energy policy agenda in an effort to bolster the caucus’ influence within the U.S. House and increase its effectiveness.

U.S. House of Representatives, Office of Michael R. Turner (R-OH) Washington, D.C.
Legislative and Communications Assistant November 2009 – January 2011

- Collaborated with Armed Services Committee staff to amplify Rep. Turner’s efforts, as the top Republican on the Subcommittee on Strategic Forces, on nuclear weapons, missile defense, and Dept. of Energy policies.
- Executed the office communications and media strategy as the primary DC-based communications staffer.
- Advised on agriculture, energy, telecommunications, technology, and transportation policy issues.
